Charity Wedding - Frequently Asked Questions

How can I find out more about each of the suppliers involved?

There is a section for each supplier on the web page which gives some information about them and what they are donating towards the wedding prize. There is also a link through to each of their individual websites, so please take the opportunity to visit their websites too and see for yourself what great suppliers we have on board and what a fantastic prize this wedding really is!

What happens if I would want to change any elements of the wedding prize?

Of course we understand that every wedding is unique and that not every aspect of the prize will necessarily suit every couple.

The couple who win the wedding will be free to add to any element of the prize, subject to agreement of the relevant supplier and payment directly to that supplier for any additional costs incurred.

Similarly, they may decide not to use a specific element of the prize, however no alternative or cash in lieu of this element will be offered. The relevant supplier must be notified at least 6 months before the date of the wedding that their services are not required.

I have a specific supplier I would like to use - is this possible?

As above, the couple who win the wedding may choose to decline a specific element of the prize and use the supplier of their choice instead, however no alternative or cash in lieu of the prize element declined will be offered. The relevant supplier must be notified at least 6 months before the date of the wedding that their services are not required.

When do tickets go on sale?

Tickets will go on sale during June 2011 - we will be posting the date when they will become available on the Snapdragon Weddings blog, Facebook page and on Twitter.

They are also available from a number of different locations. Please see the relevant section of the main web page for full details.

How much do tickets cost?

When will the Raffle be drawn?

The Raffle will be drawn on Saturday 22nd October 2011 during a Ball to be held at Bailbrook House, also raising money for the NICU.

Further details regarding the Ball will be released shortly, however in the meantime please contact Snapdragon Weddings on 07900 219939 or via email at enquiries@snapdragonweddings.co.uk for more details or to enquire about reserving tickets.
